LETTER FROM THE BISHOP Latin America Collection

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

For over 50 years, the Collection for the Church in Latin America has been a sign of the solidarity of the Church in the United States with the Church in Latin America and the Caribbean. For people living in these regions, barriers to practicing the faith include lack of resources, shortages of pastoral agents and poor infrastructures that make relatively simple things like participating in weekly Mass difficult. Your support of the collection helps to share the faith with those who long to experience God's mercy within strong faith communities.

For example, in northern Peru, great distances and deteriorated roads mean that church agents must often travel by foot or mule to rural communities. As a result, some communities are visited by pastoral agents and ministers only once per month, others sometimes just twice per year. The Collection for the Church in Latin America was able to help fund training for 65 pastoral ministers for the communities in this region. Because of your support, these new leaders continue to reach out and serve the rural communities, ensuring that all feel included in our family of faith.

Our diocese takes up this collection the weekend of January 21-22, 2017. Please be generous in this collection, and take this opportunity to share your faith with families in Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support will truly make a difference. In fact, in a letter to Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz and the entire Catholic community in the United States, Pope Francis commended the work of the collection, saying, "Through your support, many lives have been touched by the Good News of Christ's merciful love, especially for the poor." Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

National Catholic Schools Week: In two weeks, St. Agnes School begins our annual celebration of National Catholic Schools Week. During this week, we honor the role of Catholic education in our parish, our community and our nation and the many people who make our schools possible. We join Catholic Schools across the nation to celebrate the success of Catholic Schools!

The theme for National Catholic Schools Week, 2017 is: "Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service." This theme encompasses concepts that are at the heart of Catholic education. St. Agnes School is a community but also a part of the larger communities of home, Church, city and nation. Faith, knowledge and service are integral to Catholic education and the measures by which any Catholic school can and should be judged.

Please see the insert in next week's bulletin for the specific activities. We hope that School and Parish families and friends will be able to join us for the activities. The week begins with an Open House after all of the Masses on Sunday, January 29. Refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria. Teachers will be present after the 9:30 a.m. Mass. The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic Book Program:

WOW! Approximately 110 parishioners, along with a sprinkling of others from nearby parishes, took part in the successful launch of the

The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic group discussion program last Sunday in the parish hall. The next group discussion session will be held Sunday, January 29, from 3:30-4:30 p.m. in the St. Agnes Parish Hall. The program will dive into the book's second chapter and its focus on prayer as the means to achieve and maintain excellent spiritual health. If you missed the first session last Sunday, don't worry. You're more than welcome to attend the program on January 29. Be sure to mark your calendar and plan to take part in this exciting opportunity! All discussion programs are free. Complimentary cookies with coffee, iced tea and water will be provided. Contact Ed McDowall, volunteer program coordinator, at 341-1780 if you need a copy of the book for yourself or perhaps another with whom you would like to share the message it provides.

Fish Fry: Riverton Knights of Columbus will hold a Fish Fry on February 3 from 4:30-7:00 p.m. Menu includes walleye, shrimp, catfish, and baked fish dinners. Dinners include: coleslaw, choice of fries, baked potato or potato salad. Future fish fry dates are March 3, 10, 24 and April 7.

Donation envelopes for this collection were included in your January envelope packet. Donations for the Catholic Times may also be made online through our parish website. For a minimum donation of $15.00 per year, readers receive a Catholic perspective on the world around us: local, national, worldwide, and Vatican news and events. Please be sure to make at least a $15 donation. The parish relies on every person's donation to help subsidize this parish expense.

Bible Study: Christ the King parish is hosting a winter Bible Study titled The One Thing is Three. Join us as we learn about the Holy Trinity in this 10-week study. DVD lectures are by Fr. Michael Gaitley. There will be weekly homework and small group discussion. We will meet in the Christ the King Parish Center beginning on February 2 and concluding on April 6.
