Diocesan Synod 2017 – An Invitation to the Opening Ceremony

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki has decreed during this Year of Our Lord 2017 that we will celebrate our fourth diocesan synod. The previous diocesan synods were held in 1889 when our diocese was based in Alton, and 1953 and 1963 in Springfield. Since it has been more than half a century since our previous diocesan synod, we are long overdue to have another one!

A diocesan synod is a group of selected priests and other Christian faithful of a particular diocese which meets to offer assistance to the diocesan bishop for the good of the entire diocesan community. The word “synod” simply means “meeting” in Greek. Of course, meetings take place all the time in a diocese, but a diocesan synod is a special type of meeting convoking a sizeable number of people who advise the diocesan bishop in setting the direction for the pastoral ministry of the parishes and other components of the diocese itself for the next several years.

So what will the synod do? The mandate that Bishop Paprocki has established for our diocesan synod is to consider how we can make a communal commitment as a diocesan community of clergy and laity regarding discipleship and stewardship as a way of life. Specifically, this will include what it means for us as a diocese in terms of stewardship of our time, talent and treasure. Closely related to this will be how we can foster community-wide support of Catholic education so that more students will be able to attend Catholic schools. This involves understanding Catholic education as being the responsibility for everyone in each parish as a means to hand on the faith to the next generation of Catholics, not just the financial burden of parents to pay for their children’s education.

Thus, the theme of the Diocesan Synod will be: “A Call to Discipleship: Come and See.”

The general timeline will start with an Opening Ceremony on January 22. Throughout 2017 committees will draft the synodal directory, the questions for discussion and proposed synodal declarations, decrees and statutes. There will be listening sessions in the deaneries as well as opportunities for people to offer feedback online through our diocesan website. The Solemn Closing of the Synod will take place on November 26, 2017.

The faithful of the diocese are invited to the Opening Ceremony of the Diocesan Synod at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, January 22. This will consist of a Prayer Service for the opening of the Preliminary Phase of the Diocesan Synod at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Springfield. A light reception will follow the prayer service.

Join Us at the St. Agnes Gala on March 4! The Gala will be held at the Wyndham Springfield, City Center Hotel and the evening will consist of dinner, silent/live auctions, and entertainment provided by the band, The Shenanigans. Doors open at 5:00 p.m. and festivities end at midnight.

Tickets are on sale now in the gathering space after all Masses and online until we are sold out. Reserved seating options are still available. In addition to buying tickets for the event, there are several other ways you can help make our Gala a success.

- Buy Raffle Tickets - We have raffle tickets on sale for Beer for a Year, 50/50 and 2017-18 St. Agnes tuition or $2,500 toward SHG tuition. You need not be present to win.

We are accepting donations after Masses and will have donation forms for you to complete. Donations need to be in by February 5.
