Second Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic Book Discussion Today (January 29)!

Readers of The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic are invited to the second Small Group Discussion Program today in the Parish Hall. The program, to be held from 3:30 – 4:30 p.m., will focus on the importance of prayer to a strong personal relationship with God and provide direction on how to develop a “prayer process” that fits in with your other daily responsibilities. The program is free. Complimentary cookies with coffee, iced tea and water will be provided. Additional copies of the book will be available (first come, first served) at the Parish Hall prior to the program for those who have not yet received a copy or would like an additional copy to share with another.

More than 110 parishioners brought much energy and enthusiasm with them as they took part in the first book discussion program earlier this month. It will be great to have you join us!

Communion Ministers: The celebration of the Eucharist involves a variety of ministries that gives glory to God in worship and shows forth the rich diversity of gifts in the life of Christ's Body, the Church. One of those ministries is that of the communion minister. We are in need of more communion ministers to help distribute the Body and Blood of Christ at Mass. It involves only one weekend a month and would be the Mass of your choice. Please pray and consider giving some of your time for this ministry. If moved to help, simply contact our Parish Office (793-1330 or sac245@comcast.net) or contact Elaine Arisman at 899-3604. Thank you!
