Dear St. Agnes Parishioners,

The Easter season we find ourselves in is a festive time, filled with First Communions, Confirmations, Ordinations, Jubilees, and Graduations. To celebrate such is an act of thanksgiving to God who blesses us with the gift of life.

A special word of welcome to Katie Mayland who at the Easter Vigil here at St. Agnes was received into the Catholic Church, confirmed and received the Eucharist. She joins 318 other persons across our diocesan church who were initiated into the life of Christ and his Church this Easter.

This weekend we also celebrate the golden jubilees of religious profession of Sr. Joan Sorge and Sr. Martha Marie Kirbach, principal and first-grade teacher's aide respectively of our school. They, along with five other sister "classmates" celebrate the 50th anniversary of the first profession as Dominican Sisters (1967). We give thanks for their steadfast and joyful witness to God's loving presence and faithfulness in our midst!

Finally, to let you know that I will be away from the parish from Wednesday, April 26 through Sunday, May 14 on a long-planned trip to Ireland and Scotland. Though a very busy time of the year, I'm looking forward to it – to see just how "green" Ireland really is and to visit the city of my maternal grandmother's birth, Glasgow, Scotland. I will carry you in my prayers along the journey!

Easter blessings,

Fr. Bob
