The music ministry would like to express a big THANK YOU to all of those who supported our concert, Pick 3: A Trinity of Song. It was a joyous day and could not have happened without the effort of many hands. Thanks to Barb Kern and her team of ladies who served refreshments, those who came to listen, and Fr. Bob for his continued support. Words cannot express my gratitude to the musicians; so I'll say "Well done!" St. Agnes is truly blessed.

If anyone is interested in joining the music ministry, we would love to have you. Practices will resume the Wednesday and Thursday after Labor Day, September 6 and 7.

Blessings to you,
Karen Ferguson

ROCK! The Rotunda for Religious Freedom:

Mark your Calendars! The public is invited on Wednesday, June 28 at Noon to the Rotunda of the State Capitol in Springfield. Devote an hour to music, prayer, and dialog for religious freedom. Hillary Byrnes, Assistant General Counsel for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) in Washington, DC, will give a powerful witness for Religious Liberty. Join in prayer with Bishop Thomas John Paprocki of the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. Also, listen to the passionate music of Michael James Mette. Bring a bag lunch, enjoy some light refreshments in air conditioned comfort. Let's ROCK the Rotunda for religious freedom!

Reminder: We are updating our records and need your help. As you are aware, all volunteers must take the Protecting God's Children class one time, and then have a background check completed every 5 years. Recently we mailed out letters with background check forms to our volunteers that have not had a background check completed in the last 5 years. If you received the forms, please complete both forms and send them in to the Parish Office so that we can continue to maintain a safe environment for all children.

A Letter from the Bishop
(Peter's Pence)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection. Our participation supports the charitable work of Pope Francis as he reaches out to those who are marginalized and suffering around the globe. By supporting this collection, you join the Holy Father in bringing a little more mercy into the world.

Pope Francis called to us in his 2016 Urbi et Orbi address, "May efforts be made everywhere to promote the culture of encounter, justice and reciprocal respect, which alone can guarantee the spiritual and material welfare of all people." We are taking up this collection to be part of the Church's effort to promote a culture of encounter and justice. Your support makes it possible for the Holy Father to carry out his charitable works around the world, to help victims of war, natural disasters, and other difficult situations.

Let us join with our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Francis reach the marginalized in our world. Please prayerfully consider how you can best support the collection this year.

Thank you and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

WE NEED YOUR HELP!!

St. Agnes Parish has been asked to provide volunteer drivers for the Meals on Wheels program the weeks of July 17 and

July 24. We need drivers for different routes each week. They have a lot of regular drivers so the number of routes needing assistance is very limited. You can, however, sign up to be a back-up driver for these weeks. We would give them your name and phone number and they would call you if any drivers cancel. This is a great service project to do with your kids.

There will be a sign-up sheet on the table in the Gathering Space next weekend, June 24-25. Please print your name and phone number on the sign-up sheet next to the Day/Route you have chosen, and take a Volunteer Information sheet. You will be given a route sheet and map when you pick up the meals at Memorial. If you have any questions, please call the Church Office (793-1330).

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ:

Food and Drink. Flesh and Blood. In his Gospel, Saint John shares three related levels of "flesh and blood" concerning Jesus Christ. (1) He is human, just like us (in all things but sin). (2) He did suffer and die on the cross (once for all). (3) He gives himself as food and drink – and longs for each of us and all of us to dine at this ritual meal (Sunday Mass).

- Although one form, one Eucharistic species is enough for valid Communion, why should I both eat and drink?
- How can drinking from the Communion cup bind me more closely to Jesus Christ?
- How does this drinking and eating meld me more richly with the community of believers?

Feed the Hungry Via the Internet:

www.thehungersite.com Every day you go to this page and click on "Donate Free Food," a corporate sponsor provides food for one person for one day. Put this in your "Favorite Sites" or "bookmark" it, and when you sign on to the internet, go to this site first. It just takes a minute and is such an easy way to help the poor.

Young at Heart (YAH) Activities

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ:

This Sunday we celebrate a second solemnity during this period of Ordinary Time in the liturgical calendar. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This day was once called Corpus Christi, which is Latin for “Body of Christ.” In the revised Lectionary the name for this day is expanded to reflect more completely our Eucharistic theology.

Our faith teaches us that when we gather to celebrate Mass, Jesus is present to us. The bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood of Christ. This is what we mean by the word transubstantiation: Jesus makes himself present to all who receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

Reflect on what Jesus means when he calls himself the “living bread.” Recall that every time we receive the Eucharist, Jesus keeps the promise he made in today’s Gospel—those who eat his flesh and drink his blood will remain forever connected to him. Thank God for this gift of Holy Communion.

Fatherhood Guide

1. Let your children see that you treat your own parents with love and respect.
2. Let your children see that you love your heavenly Father.
3. Show in various ways that you love their mother. A loving home is a secure, stable, supportive home where each person is treated with tender loving care.
4. Listen to your children. Put down the paper, turn off the television, leave the computer and frequently ask what is going on in their lives.
5. Plan and execute recreational activities as a family.
6. Take part in school, scouting, musical and drama activities with them. Praise sincerely whatever contribution the child has made to the event.
7. Make your home cheerful. Tell funny stories and laugh. Laughter at the table creates a happy environment.
8. When your children ask for it, give your best advice, but don’t complain when they don’t follow it. The school of hard knocks is still relevant.
9. Take them to church regularly. The church helps provide guidance, stability and unity for families. Remember, the family that prays together stays together.
