Farewell Reception

for Fr. Daren: Join us this weekend after all Masses (July 29/30).

There will be a light reception for Fr. Daren as he soon leaves us here at St. Agnes for a new assignment. Beginning August 1, Fr. Daren will be the pastor of St. Augustine Parish, Ashland. In addition, he now serves as the director of our diocesan Office for Divine Worship and the Catechumenate as well as being a judge on the diocesan marriage tribunal. Join us to thank him for his presence here at St. Agnes and the depth of faith shared with us. He is a hard worker in the vineyard of the Lord. Keep Fr. Daren in prayer and let him know of your gratitude.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

The usual way by which an unbaptized person (those seven years of age and above) becomes a full, participating member of the Catholic Church is through a faith formation process called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and the reception of the sacraments of initiation at Easter.

Persons who have been baptized in another Christian church and who wish to become a member of the Catholic Church are also encouraged to participate in the RCIA before receiving the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. We are now planning for those who want to inquire about the process or simply find out what RCIA is all about.

If you know of someone interested, please call the Parish Office at 793-1330. Our RCIA sessions will begin in September.

FIRST FRIDAY—AUGUST

First Friday this month will be on August 4. Masses will be celebrated at 8:15 a.m. and at 12:10 p.m. There will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the 8:15 Mass, with reposition at noon prior to 12:10 Mass.

News from the Dominican Sisters:

Sunday, August 6, is a big day for the Dominican Sisters of Springfield who have twelve sisters celebrating their 50th, 60th, or 70th year of religious profession. Among them are Sisters Mary Joan Sorge, OP, and Sister Martha Marie Kirbach, OP, whom you know for their years of faithful service in our parish and Sister Angeline Biderbost, OP, who served here from 2009-2013 and whose vocation was nurtured in our parish.

While the sisters celebrate together at Sacred Heart Convent in Springfield, IL, it is a good time for us to join them in a prayer of gratitude for their many years of service to the people of God in our parish and diocese. It is also appropriate to think about how our parish can call forth, nurture, and support our young people who are called to join their lives to God's mission just as surely as the Dominican Sisters have been for more than 140 years.

To this end, and in honor of their sisters' jubilee, the Dominicans have a gift for you. You are invited to visit their website at springfieldop.org/a-gift-for-you to see a beautiful interactive presentation about five possible paths toward a vocation to religious life. While the presentation is focused on the call of women to religious life, the same paths are possibilities for men seeking God's way for themselves. Please take a look. If you would like vocation discernment resources for yourself or someone else, please contact any of the sisters you know or the director of vocations ministry, Sister Teresa Marron, OP, who is happy to assist you. Sister Teresa can be reached at 217-787-0481 or srteresa@spdom.org.

MAY GOD BLESS YOUR GENEROSITY!

Dear Parishioners,

As is Christian custom, the community of faith gathers on the holyday of the week, the Lord's Day, Sunday, to be nourished in the Eucharist. A variety of ministries are carried out in the celebration of the Sunday Eucharist. One of those ministries is that of being a communion minister; helping distribute the holy Body and Blood of Christ to the assembly.

We are in need of more communion ministers, especially at our 4:30 p.m. Saturday vigil Mass and the 11:30 a.m. Sunday Mass. Please consider offering your help. Some might think they would not be worthy to carry out such a ministry. The fact is no one really is worthy—priest included! Certainly, to distribute the Body and Blood of the Lord is a call to reflect the holiness of the One whom we serve. To be a communion minister is to help nourish God's People that we might be Jesus' presence when we take leave of Mass.

Please prayerfully consider offering your help with being a communion minister. The need is real. Appropriate training will be given. Just tap me on the shoulder after Mass or contact our Parish Office for further information (793-1330 or sac245@comcast.net)

Summer blessings,

Fr. Bob
