St. Vincent DePaul Society Annual Collection August 26-27:

The St. Vincent DePaul Society of St. Agnes has been providing assistance to the poor and unfortunate of our Parish and the community for over 20 years. SVD services include casework assistance (roughly 275 cases totaling over $48,000 in aid), and the providing of a St. John's Breadline meal on the first Saturday of each month. The 12 breadline meals are split into two teams of volunteers which rotate sloppy joe and/or dessert preparation. If you wish to join a sloppy joe preparation team, please contact Joan Shea-Rogers at 899-1325 or Richard Sullivan at 622-0378. If you wish to join the St. Vincent DePaul Society, please leave your contact information with the rectory at 793-1330. New volunteers are always welcome.

A second collection will be held for the St. Vincent DePaul Society the weekend of August 26-27. Thank you for over 20 years of financial and volunteer support.

CONGRATULATIONS, MAX HARTWIG!

Our prayerful best wishes accompany one of the youth of our parish, Max Hartwig, who this weekend receives the Eagle Scout's Award. Congratulations and thank you for your hard work and fine example!

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

The usual way by which an unbaptized person (those seven years of age and above) becomes a full, participating member of the Catholic Church is through a faith formation process called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and the reception of the sacraments of initiation at Easter.

Persons who have been baptized in another Christian church and who wish to become a member of the Catholic Church are also encouraged to participate in the RCIA before receiving the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. We are now planning for those who want to inquire about the process or simply find out what RCIA is all about.

If you know of someone interested, please call the Parish Office at 793-1330. Our RCIA sessions will begin in September.

St. Agnes Bereavement Support Group will have its next meeting this Thursday, August 17, 10:00 a.m. in the Rectory Conference Room. The purpose of this group is to give love and support through prayer, spiritual readings, tapes, etc., to those who are coping with the grief associated with the loss of a loved one. The Bereavement Group is open to anyone who has suffered a loss, no matter how long ago that loss was. The Group meets on the third Thursday of each month.

Conference on Aging: There's no real training program for family caregivers, but there are things you can do to make it easier when the time comes for one to step in to help parents. Dear St. Agnes Parishioners,

Make a note in your calendars! Our parish will be hosting a parish mission from Saturday, October 7 through Wednesday, October 11.

Fr. Albert Haase, O.F.M. will be returning to be our mission presenter, the theme being "BE Attitudes: Becoming Holy Right Where You Are." You might recall that Fr. Albert was with us twice before in 2013 and 2015 as a mission presenter and was well received. Parish missions are meant to be a time for the community of faith to take a step back and reflect on the word of God in a fresh and enlivening way. So treat yourself – and tell others – and mark your calendars!

A few weeks ago, a call went for more communion ministers to distribute the Body and Blood of Christ at our Sunday Masses. There is also a need for more gift bearers for Sunday Masses as well, especially for the 8:00 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. Masses. Bearers bring forth the gifts of bread and wine during Mass that become for us the Body and Blood of the Lord, nourishing us to be the risen Jesus' presence in our world. That's important. If you can help, tap me on the shoulder after Mass or contact our Parish Office (793-1330) or sac245@comcast.net.

Enjoy these remaining days of summer!

Fr. Bob
