Dear Friends in Christ,

Last weekend (September 9/10), our diocese embarked upon the 2017 Annual Catholic Services Appeal, the yearly fundraiser that finances numerous services offered by our diocesan church: formation of seminarians and candidates for the permanent diaconate, help with operating our Catholic schools, adult faith formation courses and opportunities, justice outreach, to name a few. If you haven't already, please take a look at the detailed information concerning this year's appeal in this week's edition of our diocesan newspaper, the Catholic Times (September 17 edition—dio.org/ct).

All parish households, if not already, will shortly be receiving from Bishop Paprocki a special mailing containing the goals of this year's appeal and the services financed by this appeal. Also enclosed will be a pledge card for us to make a pledge or contribution. Let us be generous.

On a different note, thank you for your generous support in last Sunday's special collection for the victims of Hurricane Harvey. $8,561 was collected! Contributions can still be made.

Peace and good to you,

Fr. Bob
