Dear St. Agnes Parishioners,

By now, all the parish households that make up St. Agnes should have received from Bishop Paprocki information concerning the 2017 Annual Catholic Services Appeal that funds the services rendered by our diocesan church. I ask each household reflect over the information sent and offer a generous response. The more that is collected in the appeal, the less our parish has to make up. Your contribution helps our parish, our diocese and most of all, helps extend the mission of the Body of Christ, the Church, right where we live! If anyone needs a pledge card or further information, please don't hesitate to contact me (793-1330).

Also, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) and Bishop Paprocki have recently authorized a special collection to be taken up in all parishes across our nation for the victims of Hurricane Irma that so devastated Florida and parts of the Caribbean. Here at St. Agnes, we will take up this special second collection after Communion at all Masses next weekend, September 30/October 1. Thank you for your generosity in response to the collection for victims of Hurricane Harvey recently and for going the "extra Mile!"

Autumn Blessings,

Fr. Bob
