2017 St. Agnes Guide Book and Directory

– We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book and Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries and organizations plus a complete directory of all members. It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in your family over the past year. Please give us a call, especially if your phone number has changed. We are finding many people no longer use their land line and have switched to a cell phone but have not called us with their current information. We appreciate you taking time to notify us of your changes. If you have an update, please call the Parish Office at 793-1330 and let us know so that the information in the Guide Book and Directory is correct.

Also, this book is being provided and mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Parish Office, 793-1330.

St. Agnes Bereavement Support Group

will have its next meeting this Thursday, October 19, 10:00 a.m. in the Rectory Conference Room. The purpose of this group is to give love and support through prayer, spiritual readings, tapes, etc., to those who are coping with the grief associated with the loss of a loved one. The Bereavement Group is open to anyone who has suffered a loss, no matter how long ago that loss was. The Group meets on the third Thursday of each month.

BAPTISM CLASS

Baptism

The Baptism Class is required for all parents who have not taken a class before, although all parents are urged to attend. The next class will be on October 26, 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the Gathering Space of the Church. Parents may take the class prior to the birth of their child. Please call the Parish Office at 793-1330 to register.

LETTER FROM THE BISHOP (World Mission Sunday)

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each October, the celebration of World Mission Sunday leads us to the heart of our Christian faith—leads us to mission, as Pope Francis explains in his message for this year's celebration on October 22.

The collection on the next-to-last Sunday in October is unique. It is truly a global effort for the entire Church. It is a central moment each year to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, an area that covers more than half the territory of the globe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace.

The materials for World Mission Sunday from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith encourage an ongoing formative relationship for mission, offering portraits of today's missionaries inspired by the words of our chief missionary, Pope Francis.

I invite all of us in the diocese to see World Mission Sunday as a special moment of encounter with the Pope's missions throughout the world. Meetings the priests, religious and lay leaders who, day in and day out, witness to the Gospel and serve the poor, will, as Pope Francis says, "enable the missionary heart of Christian communities to join in prayer, testimony of life and communion of goods, in responding to the vast and pressing needs of evangelization."

As I remain grateful for your generosity, I ask your full support, through prayer and sacrifice, on World Mission Sunday and throughout the year, as you are able.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
Bishop of Springfield in Illinois
