MAY GOD BLESS YOUR GENEROSITY!

The REAL service. Who doesn't like to be first in line? To get the bigger share? But being the boss-of-all belongs to God alone. That's the hard part, isn't it – acting out of that belief? By letting others be first, we let God be first – as it should always be.

- . What "pushy" behavior can I let go?
- . How will I let God and God's mercy be first this week?
- . How will I behave not like "the others" but like Jesus Christ?

"Re-Formed in Baptism" is the next big gathering of Catholics and Lutherans in Central Illinois on Sunday, October 28 at Chiara Center in Springfield, Illinois. Reservations for the dinner count are requested. We will ask for a voluntary financial donation to help off-set the cost of the event. Call Chiara Center at (217) 523-0901 or email info@chiaracenter.org. More information is available on the Project 510+ Facebook page or by contacting Dan Frachey, Steering Committee member.

Dear Friends in Christ,

This week, Lisa Fendrich of our parish and myself will be traveling to our sister parish in Guatemala (Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish in Quirigua, Los Amates). We leave Wednesday, October 24 and return Monday, October 29. The occasion is the beatification of two martyrs from our parish—Blessed Marcello (Tullio) Maruzzo, OFM and Luis Obdulio Arroyo Navarro. (You can "google" their names for further information!) Beatification in the life of the Church is a formal and communal recognition of faith and holiness lived by persons in a given time and area. It is a step sometimes on the way to canonization (the formal declaration of sainthood).

This is a rare event. While in Guatemala this past June visiting our sister parish, I was deeply struck at how much the witness of these two martyrs had on our brothers and sisters in the faith in our sister parish.

Lisa and I will help carry the prayerful support of our parish as our brothers and sisters celebrate this special milestone.

Blessed Tullio Maruzzo, pray for us!
Blessed Luis Obdulio Arroyo, pray for us!
St. Agnes, pray for us!
