November and Remembering = NOVEMBERING During the month of November, you are invited to bring a framed photo of your deceased loved one to St. Agnes, and we will display it in a place of honor in the church in the tradition of Dia De Los Muertos. This is a Hispanic tradition where they dead are honored and celebrated during the month of November, especially on All Saints Day and All Souls Day. In many countries, it is a celebration of life and death, that honors their memory with food, music, dance and parades. Symbolism plays an important role in the festivities, where an altar is created to honor the loved ones with flowers, foods, decorations, and other things the loved ones enjoyed while they were here on earth. You may also bring a small item to place next to the photo that reminds you of their time on earth, maybe a religious symbol, food, animal or other memento, or a simple flower or decoration. Please make sure it is not something valuable or irreplaceable, as we can not guarantee 100% that it will be returned, though we will try. If you would like to place a label with your loved one's name on the front of the photo, that would be fine. Please stick a label or tape on the back of the frame and on the memento with your name on it so we make sure it is returned. These photos may be dropped off by the Holy Family on the right hand side of the church starting on November 1. We will display them until right before Advent. Hoping to honor our loved ones with a new tradition

-The St. Agnes Social Concerns Committee

Dear St. Agnes Parishioners,
Please note that next Saturday, November 3, 4:30 p.m., will be our Parish Memorial Mass. We will remember especially all those St. Agnes parishioners who have passed over into the Lord since All Souls Day of last year. Prayer for the faithful departed is a spiritual work of mercy. Let us commend our loved ones to the Lord with heartfelt thanks. May they rest in the peace of the Lord.

Peace in the Risen Lord,

Fr. Bob
