Wednesday, November 1 marks All Saints Day, a holyday of obligation in our tradition. Masses for this solemnity will be Wednesday, November 1, 6:30 a.m., 8:15 a.m. and 6:45 p.m.

FIRST FRIDAY—NOVEMBER

First Friday this month will be on Nov. 3. Mass will be celebrated at 8:15 a.m. Please note there will not be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament nor a 12:10 p.m. Mass.

Holy Arts will be visiting our parish the weekend of November 11-12

on behalf of the Christians families in Bethlehem, Palestine. Their mission is to support those families in the Holy Land. For centuries, the Christians in and around Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious olive wood art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the Holy Land today, making it difficult for those Christians to support their families. As a result, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the Holy Land. Now, less than 1.3% of the population in the Holy Land are Christians.

2017 St. Agnes Guide Book and Directory

– We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book and Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries and organizations plus a complete directory of all members. It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in your family over the past year. If you have not already informed us about your changes (especially phone number changes), please call the Parish Office at 793-1330 and let us know now so that the information in the Guide Book and Directory is correct. We appreciate your help in keeping our records up to date and correct!

MAY GOD BLESS YOUR GENEROSITY!

November and Remembering = NOVEMBERING During the month of November, you are invited to bring a framed photo of your deceased loved one to St. Agnes, and we will display it in a place of honor in the church in the tradition of Dia De Los Muertos. This is a Hispanic tradition where they dead are honored and celebrated during the month of November, especially on All Saints Day and All Souls Day. In many countries, it is a celebration of life and death, that honors their memory with food, music, dance and parades. Symbolism plays an important role in the festivities, where an altar is created to honor the loved ones with flowers, foods, decorations, and other things the loved ones enjoyed while they were here on earth. You may also bring a small item to place next to the photo that reminds you of their time on earth, maybe a religious symbol, food, animal or other memento, or a simple flower or decoration. Please make sure it is not something valuable or irreplaceable, as we can not guarantee 100% that it will be returned, though we will try. If you would like to place a label with your loved one's name on the front of the photo, that would be fine. Please stick a label or tape on the back of the frame and on the memento with your name on it so we make sure it is returned. These photos may be dropped off by the Holy Family on the right hand side of the church starting on November 1. We will display them until right before Advent. Hoping to honor our loved ones with a new tradition

-The St. Agnes Social Concerns Committee

Dear St. Agnes Parishioners,
Please note that next Saturday, November 4, 4:30 p.m., will be our Parish Memorial Mass. We will remember especially all those St. Agnes parishioners who have passed over into the Lord since All Souls Day of last year. Prayer for the faithful departed is a spiritual work of mercy. Let us commend our loved ones to the Lord with heartfelt thanks. May they rest in the peace of the Lord.

Peace in the Risen Lord,

Fr. Bob

Please remember especially:
