Dear Parishioners of St. Agnes,

Many thanks to all who recently took the time and interest to share their reflections, concerns and insights about the possibility of a parish capital campaign. There certainly was much support to proceed with such an undertaking to raise funds addressing parish debt and some much needed maintenance projects.

Moving forward on such a campaign, our theme will be: “A Family of Faith: Investing in Our Future”.

This is an important time for our parish as we seek to lay a strong foundation for a positive future. To be successful, we will rely on every family here at St. Agnes to provide support. In the coming weeks and months you will learn much more about the campaign and the different ways you can help this cause. In the meantime, please keep in prayer our parish leaders and volunteers who will be working to ensure a successful outcome.

Blessings in this holy season of Advent,

Fr. Bob

2019 Wednesday Bible Study

– Jesus said, “This is my Body” and “This is my Blood.” Some say they’re merely symbols of remembrance. Others say they’re really the Body and Blood of Christ, but can’t explain how that’s possible. The Eucharist is the center-point of the Mass – but why? The answers are here. With deep insight, Dr. Brant Pitre gives a fresh perspective for understanding the mystery that is the Eucharist. The popular Lectio series offers Eucharist, a video-based study from the trusted presenters at the Augustine Institute. The 10-session series will be offered on Wednesdays, 9:30-11:00 a.m., in Christ the King’s Parish Center. It will start January 16. Please call Mary Kay Hinkle at 787-9750 or email by January 2 to sign up and have a book ordered for you. Cost will be around $25.

God knows where we are – and comes.

This is divine revelation: God coming, God showing, God being with us. Always! Let us, therefore, wear the cloak of justice and the hat of God’s glorious splendor. That is, let us still dress like Christ – just as we were first clothed in him at Baptism – and radiate his presence – just as we were first illumined by him in that sacramental bath.

- John the Baptist calls us, today, to conversion. What will I do?
- How can I wear mercy like a comfortable cloak, a well-worn hat?
- How can my daily life shine in more merciful ways?
